You can use any Art technique you like. 	Task 4. Today is your chance to be the illustrator of a story, just like Paula Rego. You can create your own story and illustrate it, or you can re-tell a famous fairy tale that you know and illustrate it. You can use the front cover you designed in Task 1 and then add further drawings and illustrations to tell the story. Use books that you have read before to help you.
	Task 3. Re design the front cover of your favourite fairy tale. The sheet attached (Task 2) has examples of the front covers of some of the most famous fairy tales. You can use any type of materials that you have available at home. If you have the chance to make your design 3D that would be incredible! 	Key Vocabulary Illustrations: pictures illustrating a book Fairy Tales: a children's story about magical and imaginary beings and lands Storyteller: a person who tells stories Original: the earliest form of something, from which copies may be made

Task 1. Information about Paula Rego

All About Paula Rego (1935-present)

Paula Rego was born in Portugal, but has lived most of her life in Britain, considering Britain as her home.

Paula Rego likes to tell stories in her paintings and drawings. She uses traditional Portuguese stories, fairy tales and Disney films (Snow White, Pinocchio and Fantasia) to inspire her work.

At the age of four, Paula Rego was left to live with her grandmother for years. Her grandmother was a great storyteller, which is where the theme comes from in her work.

Look at your image.

What can you see in the picture?

What is the story in the painting?

How does the picture make you feel?

Why do you think the artist made it?

What colours can you see in the painting?

If there is a woman in your painting, how do you think she is feeling?

What do you think happens next in this painting?

Task 2.

Here are example covers of The Lion and The Mouse.

Task 3.
