

I Spy You Reading Competition

Our much-loved reading competition is back! In previous years, we have received so many fantastic pictures of you all reading in the strangest and most creative places... So this year, we are really looking forward to discovering how many more imaginative places you can find to get lost in your favourite book/magazine/newspaper etc.

Where will we Spy You reading this year?

8th – 12th Class Reading Cafés

The children in each class will be welcomed to STARBOOKS reading café, to enjoy a story-themed treat. They will have the opportunity to relax during some independent reading time as well as enjoy stories, games and activities linked to their topic and interests.

A Month of Reading Madness!

“There are many little ways to enlarge your world. Love of books is the best of all.”
– Jacqueline Kennedy

On Monday 1st March, Moorside Primary School and Nursery is launching its 8th Annual Reading Extravaganza!

15th – 19th March Fun with our Favourite Authors!

Who is your favourite author?

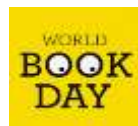

During this week, we will be celebrating the achievements of Moorside’s favourite authors.

We will be discovering which authors are Moorside’s favourites and why, as well as finding out ALL about them!

World Book Day!

Thursday 4th March

A fun-filled day of book-related activities to celebrate our LOVE of reading!

Dressing up as our favourite book characters at home and at school!

reading games, quizzes and more!

Bookmark making competition for the chance to win a prize!

Zoom reading fun!

THE MASKED READER COMPETITION!

Poetry Performances- final week

Class Performances To round off – the children in each class will work together as a class team to learn a poem ‘off-by-heart.’ Each class will record their poem together so that it can be shared with parents at home, as well as with the rest of school during a Zoom assembly on Friday 26th March.

Individual performance Children will also be given the opportunity to learn and perform a poem on their own. Children can practise and record their poem at home and send their performances to their class teacher, or they can choose to perform their poem live for their class in school. A winner from each class will then be selected to perform in the ZOOM assembly!
