

Upper Key Stage 2 Homework Challenges

This term, your homework is linked to our Victorians history topic, which also links to COGHEART because it is set in a fictional world that is based on Victorian London. You can present the challenges in any way you like. Please remember your handwriting should be neat and cursive! To be handed in before Friday 16th July.

Create a menu you would eat as a prisoner in the Victorian era. You will need to complete some research to help you... Looking at some different menus will also give you some ideas for how to structure your menu. 	Write an advert for a Victorian invention. Why should your reader buy this invention? What are the selling points? Use your powers of persuasion. You may need to research some Victorian inventions first to help you decide which one you would like to advertise! 	Write an acrostic poem based on the word COGHEART. Can you include a wide range of descriptive vocabulary to make your poem really interesting to read?
Create a table, chart or Venn diagram to compare the similarities and differences between Victorian schools and Moorside School. 	Find out who Charles Dickens is and why he is famous. Can you write a biography of his life to share what you find out about him? 	Have a go making up a game using only marbles or a skipping rope. Write a set of instructions to explain to others how to play.
Write a diary entry being in the shoes of a poor Victorian child working as a chimney sweep. What would a normal day be like? How would you feel? What would you see, hear, taste & smell? Provide a detailed account of your day. 	Imagine you are a Victorian prisoner in Pentonville Prison. You have finished a whole day of labour. Can you draw a picture of what you had to do? Can you label your picture? 	Draw a Victorian person using pencil or a fine tip black pen. Use weak coffee or tea solution to paint over it to create a Victorian portrait with an 'aged' look. Remember – the Victorians did not smile in their portraits! VERY serious...
